DAMODAR VALLEY CORPORATION

Calcutta the 26th March 1965

No. 58—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (14 of 1948) the Corporation hereby makes, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, the following further amendments to the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulations, published under Notification of the Damodar Valley Corporation No. 5 dated the 28th January 1957, namely :—

In the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulations—

In Regulation 54, for clause (a), the following clause shall be substituted, namely :—

“(a) for self

- (i) Journeys by rail—A single fare of the class in which an employee is entitled to accommodation plus a lump sum at the rate of half month's pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 150.00 plus a sum twice as much as the amount of incidental expenses prescribed for journeys on tour in Regulation 49.II.A(2).
- (ii) Journeys by road—Lump sum at the rate of half month's pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 150.00 plus one road mileage as admissible for journeys on tour under Regulation 49 I.

Note 1. When the old and the new headquarters of an employee are not connected by rail and when an employee avails of free transit by means of a conveyance supplied by the Corporation for a road journey on transfer, he will be entitled to lump sum of half month's pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 150 and in addition, one-half of the mileage allowance.

Note 2. Where the personal servants or relatives of such employee (for whom he is not entitled to draw travelling allowance under the Regulations) are provided free transport in the Corporation vehicle, the incidental expenses shall be reduced by the amount which he would have incurred on account of such servants or relatives, had they travelled by the normal mode of transport between the two stations. If the allowance for incidental expenses is less than the amount to be recovered, the excess shall be recovered in cash if it cannot be adjusted against the amount reimbursable in respect of the carriage of personal effects.

Note 3. If any personal effects exceeding the free allowance allowed by the normal mode of transport are carried free in Corporation vehicle, the weight carried by the Corporation vehicle should be deducted from the maximum quantity allowed under clause (c). In case the weight carried by the Corporation vehicle exceeds the maximum quantity allowed under clause (c), the recovery for the carriage of the excess may be made from the employee at the rate at which he would have been reimbursed, had he taken the same (excess) quantity by private conveyance.

Note 4. When the old and the new headquarters are connected by rail and when an employee avails of free transit by means of a conveyance supplied by the Corporation for a road journey on transfer, he will be entitled to a lump sum of half month's pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 150 and, in addition, one-half of the mileage allowance limited to the allowance for incidental expenses which would have been admissible to him had he travelled by rail.

Note 5. If the personal servants or relatives of such employee (for whom he is not entitled to draw travelling allowance under the regulation) are provided free transport in the Corporation vehicle, the incidental expenses should be reduced by the rail fares which he should have incurred on account of such servants or relatives had they travelled by rail by the class of accommodation to which the employee was entitled to travel. If the allowance for incidental expenses is less than the amount of such rail fares, the excess shall be recovered in cash if it cannot be adjusted against the amount reimbursable in respect of carriage of personal effects.

Note 6. If any personal effects exceeding the free allowance which would have been permissible had the employee travelled by rail, are carried free in a Corporation vehicle, a corresponding reduction on account of extra luggage shall be made from the maximum weight in kilograms allowed under clause (c). In case the weight carried by Corporation conveyance exceeds the maximum weight allowed under clause (c), the recovery for the carriage of the balance less the free allowance may be made from the employee at the rate at which he would have been reimbursed, had he taken the same (excess) quantity by rail.

Note 7. The claims of the employee in respect of the members of his family and personal effects which are governed respectively by clauses (b) and (c) are not affected when the employee alone is allowed free transit but the total luggage carried by him shall not exceed the total quantity of kilograms admissible under clause (c).

Note 8. If Corporation vehicle is used by an employee for the conveyance of the members of his family and his personal effects, no extra allowance or mileage under clauses (b) and (c) will be admissible."

The Notification shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the 8th November 1962.

INDIAN AIRLINES EMPLOYEES' PROVIDENT FUND REGULATIONS, 1955

Delhi the 6th April 1965

No. PFB/2/4978—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 45 of the Air Corporations Act, 1953 (27 of 1953), Indian Airlines Corporation hereby makes, with the previous approval of the Central Government, the following amendments in the Indian Airlines Employees' Provident Fund Regulations, 1955, namely :—

1. The existing provision under Regulation 12 shall be numbered as sub-regulation (1) and after sub-regulation (1) so numbered, the following sub-regulation (2) shall be added to Regulation 12 :

"(2) A retired Government servant employed in the Corporation may also be permitted to become a member of the Fund from the date of commencement of his employment in the Corporation or from the date he ceases to have any connection with his preretirement post whichever is later, but the Corporation's contribution and interest thereon will not be credited to his account, unless the total period of his employment in the Corporation is more than one year from the date of commencement of his membership."

2. After Regulation 12, the following regulation shall be added as Regulation 12-A.

"12-A : Procedure on employment of a person who was previously a subscriber to any Provident Fund of the Government or of a body Corporate, owned or controlled by the Government.

Where a person employed in the Corporation was previously a subscriber to any Provident Fund of the Government or a Body Corporate, owned or controlled by the Government, the transfer of his Provident Fund accumulations from the Government Department or Body Corporate shall be accepted to his credit to an initial deposit in the Fund. Provided that after the acceptance of the transfer, the provident fund account of the employee shall be governed by the Regulations of the Fund."

3. The following sub-clause (iii) shall be added to sub-regulation (2) of Regulation 20 :—

"(iii) where a retired Government servant is employed in the Corporation and is permitted to become a member of the Fund under sub-regulation (2) of Regulation 12, the Board shall have power to pay at the appropriate time the full amount of the Corporation's contribution together with interest thereon if he ceases to be in the service of the Corporation after completing more than one year's service, unless such payment is withheld under any other provisions of these Regulations."

4. The following sub-regulation (4) shall be added under Regulation 20 :—

"(4) Save as provided in sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 23, when a member, having ceased to be an employee of the Corporation, joins the service of a Government Department or a Body Corporate, owned or controlled by the Government, the amount of subscriptions and contributions together with interest thereon, shall not be paid to him, but shall be transferred, with the consent of the Government Department or the Body Corporate to his new provident fund account under that Department/Body".

(This shall take effect from 7th December 1962).
